

Think about a specific time that you've wanted to be able to access tools, information or evidence on peer support

What was the time? _____

Why was it important?	Who was it a problem for?	How did you solve it? Was it a good solution?	What social or cultural factors shaped the problem?	How could it be solved in the future?	Are there other examples of how it's been solved that we can learn from?