

Royal College of Physicians Quality Improvement

Reflection on 2018 Q Exchange bid and subsequent projects

Gabby Rice, RCPQI project manager

A connected community working together to improve health and care quality across the UK

Contents

1. Bid outline
2. The Q exchange process
3. Outcome and reflection
4. Patients as partners – a new approach
5. Our next steps

Bid outline

- Tailored training and peer support for patient and service users involved in QI projects
- Patients, carers and the public at the centre
- Promotion of QI patient faculty

Outcome and reflection

- Unsuccessful outcome
- Supportive and encouraging process
- What have you gained?
- What can you take forward?

Patients as partners – a new approach

- Similar approach – upskilling and training PCN members
- Reflecting on feedback from previous Q exchange submission
- Co-designed training
- Supporting RCPQI's work (breakthrough collaborative series, chief registrar programme etc)

Our next steps

- Finalising funding for the patients as partners project
- Design training framework
- Recruit cohort 1
- Developing Q SIG

Stay in touch

- Visit us online: www.rcplondon.ac.uk/rcpqi
- Email us: rcpqi@rcplondon.ac.uk
- Follow us on Twitter: @RCP_QIPS

Thank you

Any questions?

